

Congratulations on your degree!

Dear Candidate,

Your graduation from the University of Iceland is fast approaching, and I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate you on your achievement.

Under normal circumstances, the ceremony would have taken place as usual on Saturday 19 February in Háskólabíó, the University Cinema, but due to the pandemic things will be a bit different this year.

Instead of a traditional graduation ceremony, candidates are invited to collect their degree certificate from the University Cinema that day. See further details on collecting your certificate below.

Infection control measures will be in place at all times and candidates are encouraged to wear facemasks when they enter the University Cinema. Masks and hand sanitiser will also be available on site for those who want.

Although the event will not have the same ceremonial atmosphere as usual, we really hope to see you at the University Cinema on 19 February because this is a day of celebration and accomplishment for you and the University. We are extremely proud of you and wish you the very best for the future.

Best regards,

Jón Atli Benediktsson
rector of the University of Iceland

What to do: Enter through the main entrance of the University Cinema. Here you must show your ID and then proceed into the foyer in the large auditorium, where you will receive your degree certificate. Afterwards, you will have the opportunity to have a photograph taken of you with your certificate, before leaving the building.

Staff will be on site to provide further instructions.

In order to avoid delays and minimise the risk of infection, guests are not permitted to accompany candidates into the University Cinema.

If you are unable to collect your degree certificate from the University Cinema on 19 February, you can collect it from your faculty office by Monday 21 February.
