

A photograph of a graduation ceremony on a stage. Several graduates in formal attire are standing, and one is receiving a diploma from a man in a suit. The stage is decorated with flowers.

Congratulations on your achievement

University of Iceland Graduation Ceremony 24 June 2023

Dear Graduate,

The University of Iceland Graduation Ceremony is fast approaching, and I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate you on your achievement. We are extremely proud of you and your fellow students and wish you the very best for the future.

We know that this academic year has been challenging, so we sincerely hope that you are able to attend the Graduation Ceremony in Laugardalshöllin and come together with your fellow students to celebrate all your hard work.

Please note that by participating in the graduation ceremony candidates commit to not leaving until it is concluded.

We would also love to maintain a connection with you in the future and draw your attention to the University's alumni work, https://english.hi.is/university/university_alumni. We use this platform to share information about the diverse work happening at the University which could be of interest to you, but we also want to hear about how you get on in the future.

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading 'Jón Atli Benediktsson'.

Jón Atli Benediktsson
Rector of the University of Iceland

Useful information for the Graduation Ceremony

Time and place: 24 June, 10 am in Laugardalshöllin. The ceremony is estimated to be concluded by 12.15.

Arrival: No later than 9.30 am.

Guests: Two guests may accompany you.

Seating arrangements: You will have a designated seat; your seat number can be found on the list of candidates by the entrance to Laugardalshöllin. Guest will be sitting in unmarked seats.

The Ceremony: When your group (i.e. department/programme) is called up, candidates walk onto the stage to a mark on the floor. Once you have received your diploma from the Head of Faculty and been congratulated by the Rector, walk across the stage and return directly to your seat. University staff will be on site to assist and provide further instructions.

N.B. If you are unable to attend the ceremony, please inform your Faculty Office by Monday 19 June at 3 pm.