The University of Iceland Research Fund – Instructions for filling out the form

In general:

Applications must be submitted online. Applications may be in English. Applications and final reports shall be filled out using the University of Iceland Research Fund forms provided specifically for this purpose. Applicants who have previously received a grant, must submit a final report no later than when a new application is submitted. Applicants must provide complete and unambiguous answers to all items on the application form. Incomplete applications will not be processed. Applicants are also reminded to obtain necessary permissions from, e.g., the Data Protection Authority, the Ethics Committee and/or the Committee on the use of Experimental Animals as applicable.

N.B. word limits are treated seriously and apply equally whether text is typed into the application form itself or sent as an accompanying document.

It is possible to save the form, but four mandatory fields (name, email address, project title and confirmation of application) must be filled in to do so. These fields are marked red. To save the form, click "finish later" (klára seinna) at the top part of the form. A link appears, which the applicant must save onto their computer.
